

Robyn Bigelow Hargrove

Robyn joined Scott Douglass & McConnico in 2001 and has represented individuals, business entities, professionals, and government entities in a wide variety of complex commercial litigation matters since that time. Robyn has successfully defended a number of professional malpractice and professional sanctions cases, both in Texas and out of state. She also has significant experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in fiduciary litigation, contract disputes, coverage litigation, business torts, and other complex commercial cases.

Robyn's practice emphasizes appellate representation and trial court litigation involving complicated legal issues.
